

Programme – Thursday 21 September: BRE Innovation Park, Bucknalls Lane, Watford WD25 9NH

	09:00	Registration, exhibition and networking
	09:25	Welcome and Introduction by Chair	Dr Paul Toyne, Commissioner, London Sustainable Development Commission
The demand for quality homes and communities	09:30	Keynote – Cultural Shifts: The author of the acclaimed 2016 report "Modernise or Die", Mark Farmer updates his diagnosis of Housebuilding one year on	Mark Farmer, Founding Director and CEO, Cast
	10:00	Social value: why society must demand investment in mixed tenure – private, PRS, social and council – homes and communities	Bevan Jones, Managing Director, Sustainable Homes
	10:20	Evidencing the consumer demand for quality new homes	Adam Challis, Head of Residential Research, JLL
	10:40	What customers tell us makes a community	Rob MacDiarmid, Group Sustainability Director, Redrow
	11:00	Refreshments, exhibition and networking
Supply challenges to build quality homes and communities	11:20	Skills and training to meet current needs and the evolving construction models	Michael Jaggs, Associate Director, BRE Academy
	11:40	The way we build: the increasing place pre-fabrication plays in performance	Angharad Palmer, Architect, Pocket Living
	12:00	The importance of innovation and collaboration to design a scalable concept house	Seyed Miratashi, Structural Engineer working in the Built Environment Team, Wienerberger
	12.25	Tour of the BRE Innovation Park, including the Wienerberger, ZEDpod and KODA houses
	12.50	LUNCH: EXHIBITION & NETWORKING
Good design and practice to create quality homes and	13:45	Embedding quality in design	Rory Bergin, Partner Sustainable Futures, HTA
	14:05
	14:25	Ethical and responsible sourcing to create social value	Dr Shamir Ghumra, Director Centre for Sustainable Products, BRE – No presentation

	14:40	Refreshments, exhibition and networking
Delivering quality homes & communities that provide social value & meet	15:00	How standards ensure quality and drive up value for all stakeholders	Gwyn Roberts, Homes and Communities Team Leader, BRE
	15:20	A focus on implementing offsite manufacturing to deliver homes for key workers and air space development	Tony Dicarolo, Director, Innerspace
	15:40	Building a living legacy	Andrew Day, Head of Sustainability, Telford Homes
	16:00	Chairs closing remarks
	16:10	End

Delivered by

In Partnership with

Conference Season Partner

Corporate Sponsor

